Introduction

The report provides per capita and percentage figures reflecting selected FY90 support and activity indicators for responding public libraries. Data were compiled from the FY91 Library Incentive Grant and FY91 Municipal Equalization Grant Application and the Annual Report Information Survey forms.

With few exceptions, financial, collection, and hours open data are for the twelve month period ending June 30, 1990. Thirteen libraries reported holdings and/or circulation data for calendar year 1989. The work week and full-time equivalents (FTE) data are reported as of July 1, 1990.

The report reflects income, expenditure and hours open data for 321 municipalities, 92% of those with public libraries. A total of 318 or 91% of the municipalities with libraries supplied holdings, circulation, work week, and staffing data.

For municipalities with more than one independent library receiving public funds, this report reflects the combined levels of library support and activity for all libraries within the community, except for Northampton where the Lilly Library did not submit any work week or staffing data.

ARRANGEMENT OF THE REPORT

The report is arranged in three sections: Summary Tables, Municipal Tables, and the survey forms. Statewide and regional data for selected indicators follow the introduction. The Usage Notes preceding the Summary Tables contain a formula for calculating percentiles not appearing in the Summary Tables.

STATEWIDE DATA

Statewide data for selected financial and collection indicators are shown for the last five fiscal years with per capitias based on the population served by the libraries responding each year. Statewide and Regional tables are located following the Introduction.

Section One: Summary Tables

The summary tables display the mean (average), median, and the 10th, 25th, 75th, and 90th percentile values of nine indicators for population groups I through VI. Because of the small number of municipalities in group VI, the percentiles for this group should be considered estimates only.

Means, medians, and percentiles are superfluous for group VII, the three municipalities with populations in excess of 100,000. Data for these municipalities appear in the municipal tables only.

Section Two: Municipal Tables

Data for individual municipalities are arranged in seven population groups based on the 1988 federal population estimates. See the Index to determine in which population group a municipality is listed.

INDICATORS OF LIBRARY SUPPORT & ACTIVITY

In addition to 1988 population estimates, 1988 population rank, and regional system affiliation (Central, Eastern, or Western), the following library data appear in this order in the municipal tables:

Total Operating Income Per Capita
Appropriated Municipal Income Per Capita
Total Operating Expenditures Per Capita
Salary Expenditures Per Capita and as a Percent of Total Operating Expenditures
Materials Expenditures Per Capita and as a Percent of Total Operating Expenditures
Holdings Per Capita
Circulation Per Capita
Hours Open in the Winter and Summer
Hours in the Work Week
Full-time Equivalents of Staff

The emphasis of the report is municipal data. Therefore, we ask that the state funds received by libraries that contract with the Board of Library Commissioners to provide regional services be omitted from their grant applications.

The following state funds have been included, where relevant, in the report if the library reported them as sources of operating income or expenditures: the Library Incentive Grant, the Municipal Equalization Grant, and the Additional Aid to Public Libraries.

Because all libraries do not have precisely the same sources of income, the Total Operating Income data are not comparable in terms of categories of income and access to the income.

The discretion with which trust and/or endowment income may be expended varies widely among libraries depending on, among other things, the fund restrictions. Some funds, for example, restrict expenditures to materials on a relatively narrow topic. As a result, a library's operating income may appear inflated until selected materials complying with the fund requirements are acquired.

Print and non-print data are combined in the Holdings and Circulation indicators.

Hours Open, Winter and Summer, displays the number of hours in an average week that the library was open to the public in FY90. Hours for branch libraries are included if they do not overlap main library hours.

Hours in the Work Week, for larger libraries, is the number of hours typically worked per week by a full-time paid staff member; that is, 35 or more. For smaller libraries where no one works 35 hours, the figure is the greatest number of hours worked in a typical week by a paid staff member. Even though it is less than 35 hours and for the purposes of this report is not considered full-time, that work week may be considered full-time by the municipality.

The full-time equivalents (FTE) reflect paid full-time and part-time staff, excluding those paid by state or federally subsidized employment programs. One FTE equals 35 paid staff hours.

LIBRARY INCENTIVE GRANT AND MUNICIPAL EQUALIZATION GRANT PROGRAMS

The compilation of data for this report may not necessarily correspond to the data used to determine compliance with the requirements of the FY91 Library Incentive Grant/ FY91 Municipal Equalization Grant Program.

Section Three: Survey Forms and Instructions

This section contains the second and third pages of the FY91 Library Incentive Grant/Municipal Equalization Grant Application and the last page of the Annual Report Information Survey along with instructions for form completion.

USAGE NOTES

The statistical measures applied to each indicator of library support and activity in the Summary Tables are: a measure of central tendency which is commonly termed the "average." It is derived by dividing the sum of all the values in any particular group of data by the number of values included in that total.

describes the position of a value in its distribution, indicating the percent of cases in a distribution falling at or below the value of an indicator. For example, the library of a hypothetical municipality has a per capita operating expenditure of $6.00 and a corresponding percentile rank of 25. This indicates that 25% of the municipalities in the population group have the same or smaller per capita operating expenditure than the sample library.

the popular term for the 50th percentile; is equal to the value of an indicator at or below which 50% of the values fall. The value of the median differs from the value of the mean when the distribution of the values of an indicator is not regular, but rather skewed or piled at either end of the range. When there is considerable difference between the median and the mean, the median is generally thought of as being the more valid measure of central tendency.

Percentiles are not the most descriptive measures when the number of cases is small, the distribution is skewed, or the range of values is small. This is especially evident in Table G for the 25,000 - 49,999 and 50,000 - 99,999 groups.

Constructed below are hypothetical library situations designed to illustrate how the Summary Tables may be used and how an undisplayed percentile may be calculated.

Calculating an Undisplayed Percentile

In some instances, the value of an indicator may fall between the displayed values of a statistical measure, such as between the median (50th percentile) and the 75th percentile and it is informative to calculate the undisplayed percentile. Following is an example of how this may be done.

Example A: For a library in a hypothetical municipality in the 50,000 to 99,999 population group (group VI), salary expenditures are equal to $12.18 per capita. From Summary Table D, we see that 12.18 falls between the values of the median (10.50) and the 75th percentile (13.20). We can estimate, based on the data available and using population served as a basis of comparison, that for the library in our hypothetical municipality, salary expenditures per capita are equal to or greater than 65% of the municipalities reporting in this population group.

PERCENTILE			Median 50th	65th 75th		90th 100		Mean
	0	10th		25th
VALUES	5.71	8.55	10.50	12.18	13.20	17.12	28.85	12.18

Undisplayed percentile ranks may be calculated by the shorthand interpolation procedure used to compute the 65th percentile in Example A. This was done by:

- a - Finding the difference between the displayed values falling above (13.20) and below (10.50) our hypothetical value (12.18). The difference is 2.7 salary expenditures dollars per capita.
- b - Finding the difference between our hypothetical value (12.18) and the displayed value falling below it (10.50). The difference is 1.68 salary expenditures dollars per capita.
- c - Determining the ratio of the latter difference to the former difference (1.68 divided by 2.7), which equals .622.
- d - Finding the difference between the displayed percentiles corresponding to the displayed values falling above and below our hypothetical value (12.18). In our example, the difference between the corresponding percentiles (75th and median/50th) is 25 percentile units.
- e - Interpolating the ratio from the values line to the difference between the displayed percentiles. In our example, the ratio is .622 (see c above) and the difference between the percentiles is 25 (see d above).  $.622 \times 25 = 15.55$  percentile units.
- f - Adding the interpolated percentile units to the displayed percentile falling below our hypothetical value to arrive at the estimated percentile rank of our hypothetical library. For example,  $15.55 + 50 = 65.55 = 65\text{th}$  percentile.

It should be noted that this procedure assumes that the size of the intervals between values is constant throughout the distribution. Quite often there is slight variability in their size, so that ranks computed by this method must be considered estimates.

Looking at More than One Statistical Measure

For each indicator it is most useful to review the results of the statistical measures in conjunction with one another. Another look at Summary Table D indicates that the hypothetical library mentioned in Example A has a salary expenditure per capita figure equal to the mean figure (12.18) of the population group.

Therefore, while we may say that salary expenditures per capita are equal to the "average" for this population group, it remains true that for our hypothetical municipality, per capita salary expenditures are greater than or equal to 65% of the reporting municipalities in this population group.

Another illustration of the value of looking at more than one measure follows.

EXAMPLE B: In some cases, percentile values may be used effectively to qualify the minimal information provided by the range of values for an indicator and population group. For example, a library in a hypothetical municipality in the 5,000 to 9,999 population group (group III) could have a total operating expenditure of $26.08 per capita.

From Summary Table C, we see that 26.08 equals the value of the 90th percentile and falls almost one half of the way between the range (3.92 through 50.97) of total operating expenditure per capita of all reporting libraries in this population group.

PERCENTILE	0	10th	25th	Median		75th	90th	100	Mean
				50th
VALUE	5.96	10.20	15.57		22.11	26.08	50.97	16.70

Based on this information, we may say, therefore, that even though the hypothetical library's total operating expenditure per capita is about one-half as much as that of the library with the highest value in the population group ($50.97), it has a total operating expenditure per capita greater than or equal to that of 90% of the libraries in this population group.

Using Other Bases of Comparison

We urge readers not to restrict themselves to comparisons by population groupings. Other indicators or combination of indicators in the report or from other sources which measure municipal revenue capacity may be used to group similar libraries and to form the basis of comparison among them. From the Municipal Tables in this report, a reader may identify municipalities having similar values for one or more of the support and activity indicators and thereby establish a group of similar libraries, regardless of population served.
